54. Report from the Management Committee Representatives :

Cllr Goringe gave a brief report on the meeting held this week. The Management Committee were enthusiastic and were very positive. Currently they are looking into ideas for raising income which would include the possibility of hiring to a regular group or children's parties. The Clerk will make enquiries about hirers cover at renewal. The Leader has been asked to provide regular reports on numbers they are getting between 10 and 12 children regularly. Their next meeting is scheduled for 3rd December.

Meeting closed at 8.50pm.
